Rel. Br.

While in Cleveland exiled King Peter of Yugoslavia visited The Cleveland Museum of Art and was taken on a tour by Dr. Sherman E. Lee, Director and Mr. Henry S. Francis, Curator of Paintings. His Majesty spent two hours in the Museum showing a sound knowledge of art and a broad interest in it. He expressed particular pleasure in the Guelph Treasure and LAZARUS AND THE RICH MAN by Bassano. Photograph shows His Majesty viewing GRAVESTONE IN FORM OF LEKYTHOS, Greek, Athenian, 4th century B.C. from The J. H. Wade Collection with Dr. Lee.
